APEX HORIZON BANK - RETAIL BANKING DISCLOSURE & RATES (2024-25)

Reference: AHB-RATE-FY24-25-V3 | Effective Period: April 1, 2024 to March 31, 2025

1. Statutory Policy Framework for Financial Year 2024-25

This annual regulatory disclosure details the deposit structures, interest yields, and transactional frameworks authorized by Apex Horizon Bank for the financial year 2024-25. All retail operations during this fiscal cycle comply with national central bank directives, reserve ratio covenants, and automated liquidity maintenance standards applicable across retail branches.

2. Customer Identification (KYC) & Compliance Obligations

During FY 2024-25, accountholders were required to provide documented Proof of Identity (POI) and Proof of Address (POA). Biometric authentication or certified physical submissions must be verified within thirty (30) days of account opening. Failure to maintain updated KYC details leads to transitional restrictions on international wire transfers and automated ATM withdrawals.

3. Standard Operating Regulations for Deposit Accounts

Retail accounts opened in financial year 2024-25 accrue interest calculated on daily end-of-day cleared balances. Electronic statements are dispatched on the first business day following month-end close. Accountholders have access to internet banking, mobile applications, and customer support helplines.
